EXPERIMENTAL ERROR #013: VERMA GHODI

Classified By: Company President Ryan Blackmoore.

1.(C) Summary: On August 27, 2013, the subject entered into a contract with Blackmoore Industries. The agreement detailed one mind transferal operation with a compensation equivalent to $1,000,000 CND. The transferal initially appeared successful until the subject returned to office headquarters three days later to make claims about side-effects possibly linked to the process, including but not limited to: black outs, confusion, and short-term memory loss. The situation will most certainly require additional follow-up. End summary.

2.(C) Facts: Subject has no access to health care or family support. No dependants. Subject shows signs of desperation. Subject poses a significant threat to Blackmoore Industries as potential lawsuits and negative media coverage could arise. Recommended course of action: minimize risk by soft silencing the subject.

3. (B) Follow-up: Dr. Klien confirmed that subject has developed dementia with cognitive deterioration at unusually rapid rates in the weeks following the mind transferal operation. Dr. Klien performed a [REDACTED] operation to ensure subject was no longer capable of performing several basic motor functions. Subject failed all further cognitive tests and could no longer recognize his own reflection in a mirror. Subject threat eliminated.
